

Docksider Pavilion Celebrates One Year in Elite Events

Media release: Friday July 31, 2015.

Docksider Pavilion's first birthday celebration is set to impress! Sydney's largest floating event venue, Docksider Pavilion in Darling Harbour prepares for the biggest celebration of the year. Docksider Group's newest venue has turned one and the space that specialises in hosting elite events knows the perfect way to commemorate the occasion.

Docksider Groups newest venue has seen an array of elite events including The Westpac Federal Budget Announcement Dinner 2015, BICSI, Good Design, the Sydney launch of Mercedes Benz's next-generation C-Class Series, the Project Futures Stella Fella Charity Black Tie Ball, The Australian Beauty Awards, the NRL Grand Final Luncheon, The Australian Hotels Association Awards, Business Chicks Lorna Jane, Rachel Zoe and Seth Godin, Walkeys Foundation 2014 Awards, Broadcast and Television Awards, NSW Tourism and Business Chamber Awards, Variety Cycle Dinner, and the Variety Woolworths Fundraising Ball.

Recognising the leading events achieved within the first year of business and the influx of foot traffic in Darling Harbour. Docksider Pavilion has a lot to celebrate. Docksider Group's newest venue has hosted over 100 events and welcomed over 80,000 guests.

Guests can expect to be dazzled while they dine on the finest wines and most delectable cuisine, created especially for the event by the group's Executive Chef. Docksider Group expect to welcome an exclusive guest list to the occasion to assist in the celebrations and in thanks for their support during the first year.

With the International Convention Centre under renovations, Docksider Group Managing Director, Christopher Drivas, says "Docksider Pavilion provides an ideal opportunity to give back to the precinct and offer a premium product which encourages Sydney siders to travel into Darling Harbour and enjoy all the precinct has to offer."

Docksider Pavilion is owned and operated by Docksider Group and will remain in Darling Harbour until the completion of the new International Convention Centre. For more information about Docksider Group visit www.docksidegroup.com.au
