

Dockside Group and The Canterbury Bankstown Bulldogs Join Forces for Another Successful Year!

Media Release: Monday, March 6, 2017

Following a very successful partnership in 2016, The Canterbury Bankstown Bulldogs corporate partnership continues to go from strength to strength with Dockside Group proud to be back on board in 2017 as the Club's official venue partner.

Dockside Group is a family owned and operated hospitality business boasting a large collection of iconic waterfront venues all on Sydney Harbour.

Dockside and L'Aqua, Star are situated in picturesque Cockle Bay Wharf overlooking the sparkling shores of Darling Harbour. Waterfront, Wolfies and Italian Village are in the heritage listed sandstone buildings in The Rocks precinct.

With over 30 years' experience and deliciously fabulous hospitality, Dockside Group provides incredible harbour front venues ideal for all occasions.

"There's a great alignment of values between the Bulldogs and the Dockside Group and we're very grateful for their decision to support the Club," said Chief Executive Raelene Castle.

"We share a strong sense of family and being hospitable and inclusive is at the core of what we both do. We're looking forward to sharing many good times at Dockside Group venues."
